

To whom it may concern

Regarding Louise Keeton

Louise Keeton was my student in Contemporary Scene Study last year at Shenandoah University. She has made a considerable impression on me in the three years that I have known her. She is a remarkable student, not just because she practices a serious work ethic, but she is also a student who loves to learn. She absorbs new playwrights and reads for pure joy of learning. She is always eager to seek out ideas and styles to analyze and discuss. Louise is an intellectual (a rare commodity these days) as well as being a very talented actress. She is responsible, conscientious and always goes beyond what is asked of her. She is also a leader and a valuable mentor to her peers.

I have seen Louise perform in many genres from Theatre for Youth productions to Second Stage performances. I have observed her as a director on two occasions and have remarked on her ability to organize and obtain the best out of others.

I write many recommendations, but it is rare that I can write so positively and wholeheartedly in praise of a student.

Yours sincerely,

Sally Anderson

Theatre Adjunct, Shenandoah Conservatory